Package Holidays

1 Your booking with Switzerland Travel Centre

1.1 These are the booking conditions that apply to your booking. However they do not apply to all our individual products/services booked with us unless they are part of a package as defined below.

1.2 In these booking conditions 'we', 'us' and 'our' refer to Switzerland Travel Centre Ltd.

1.3 In these booking conditions a package means a pre-arranged combination of at least 2 of the following 3 components when sold at an inclusive price covering a period of more than 24 hours or including an overnight stay. The components are:

- Transport (flight or rail)
- Accommodation
- Other tourist services (e.g. rail tickets, seat reservations, excursions, car hire) accounting for a significant proportion of the package services. A package does not include travel insurance booked at the same time.

2 Your financial protection

2.1 The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 require us to provide security for the monies that you pay for the package holidays booked from this brochure/website and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency. We provide this security with the Civil Aviation Authority under ATOL number 4013 and an ABTA bond for packages that do not include flights. If you book arrangements other than a package holiday from this brochure (e.g. accommodation only), the financial protection referred to above does not apply.

Please note: The above applies only to services supplied by Switzerland Travel Centre Ltd and does not apply to services featured in our brochure/website that are provided by any other company.

2.2 When you buy an ATOL protected flight or flight inclusive holiday from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong."

We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where neither we nor the supplier are able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable).

If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.

For further information visit the ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk/ATOLcertificate

2.3 We are a Member of ABTA, membership numbers are W1432 and G5275. We are obliged to maintain a high standard of service to you by ABTA's Code of Conduct. We can also offer you an arbitration scheme for the resolution of disputes arising out of, or in connection with this contract. Further information on the Code and arbitration can be found on ABTA's website www.abta.com or under point 11 of these terms and conditions.

3.3 Please check your confirmation invoice carefully as it forms the basis of this contract. Any discrepancies should immediately be brought to our attention. While we will try everything to make these amendments, fees might apply depending on the product and supplier.

3.4 If you have any special requests please indicate these at the time of booking. Whilst every effort will be made to meet these requests, they cannot be guaranteed.

The balance of the price of your holiday must be paid at least 8 weeks before departure. Please note: We do not issue reminders for this balance and your confirmation invoice which you receive after paying your deposit, also serves as your final invoice. If you are booking your holiday within 8 weeks of departure, payment, including all applicable insurance premiums must be paid in full. If the deposit and/or balance is not paid in time, we shall cancel your holiday and retain your deposit. All monies you pay to your travel agent are held by him on our behalf at all times.

7 If you change your holiday

7.1 If, after our confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, e.g. your chosen departure date or accommodation, we will do our utmost to make these changes but it may not always be possible. Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be asked to pay an administration charge of £ 30.00, and any further cost we incur in making these alterations. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date that changes are made and you should contact us as soon as possible. Since we incur costs in cancelling your holiday, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges up to the maximum shown in the table below. The cancellation will take effect from the day the written confirmation is received. Note: If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your travel insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges.

9 If we change or cancel your holiday

9.1 It is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your travel arrangements, but we do sometimes book the arrangements many months in advance. Occasionally, we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. For example, if the minimum number of clients required for a particular travel arrangement is not reached, we may have to cancel it. However, we will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 8 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. In accordance with EU regulations we are required to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight. We do this by listing carriers to be used or likely to be used as follows: Swiss International Air Lines, British Airways, Air France. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, changes to aircraft type, change of accommodation to another of the same standard. If we make a major change to your holiday, we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. You will have the choice of either accepting the change of arrangements, accepting an offer of alternative travel arrangements of comparable standard from us if available (we will refund any price difference if the alternative is of a lower value), or cancelling your booked holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid. In all cases, except where the major change arises due to reasons of force majeure, we will pay compensation as detailed in the chart below.

Period of departure within which notice of major change is notified:	Compensation for paying passenger:
More than 56 days	None
Between 56 – 42 days	£20
Between 41 – 28 days	£30
Between 27 – 8 days	£40
Less than 8 days	£50

Force majeure: This means that we will not pay you compensation if we have to cancel or change your travel arrangements in any way because of unusual or unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control. These can include, e.g. war, riot, industrial dispute, terrorist activity and its consequences, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, adverse weather conditions.

10 If you have a complaint

10.1 If you have a problem during your holiday, please inform the relevant supplier (e.g. your hotelier) who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint is not resolved locally, please follow this up within 28 days of your return home by writing to our Customer Services Department at 30 Bedford Street, London WC2E 9ED giving your booking reference and all other relevant information. Please keep your letter concise and to the point. This will assist us to quickly identify your concerns and speed up our response to you. It is strongly suggested that you communicate any complaint to the supplier of the services in question and us whilst in the resort. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in the resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

11 What happens to complaints

11.1 Disputes arising out of, or in connection with, this contract which cannot be amicably settled may be referred to arbitration, if the customer so wishes, under a special scheme arranged by ABTA, and administered independently by IDRS, part of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. The scheme provides for a simple and inexpensive method of arbitration on documents alone with restricted liability on the customer in respect of costs. Full details will be provided on request or can be obtained from the ABTA website (www.abta.com). The Scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person. There is also a limit of £25,000 per booking form. Neither does it apply to claims, which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. The Scheme can however deal with compensation claims, which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a limit of £1,500 on the amount the arbitrator can award per person in respect of this element. The application for arbitration and Statement of Claim must be received by ABTA within eighteen months of the date of return from the holiday. Outside this time limit arbitration under the Scheme may still be available if we agree, but the ABTA Code does not require such agreement. For injury and illness claims, you can request ABTA Mediation Procedure and we have the option to agree to mediation. The aim is to help you resolve your dispute in a quick and cost effective way. Details on request from www.abta.com.

12 Our liability to you

12.1 If the contract we have with you is not performed or is improperly performed by us or our suppliers we will pay appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your travel arrangements. However we will not be liable where any failure in the performance of the contract is due to: you, or a third party unconnected with the provision of the travel arrangements and where the failure is unforeseeable or unavoidable; or unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all due care had been exercised; or an event which we or our suppliers, even with all due care, could not foresee or forestall. Our liability, except in cases involving death, injury or illness, shall be limited to a maximum of two times the cost of your travel arrangements. Our liability will also be limited in accordance with and/or in an identical manner to the contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements. Our liability will also be limited in accordance with and/or in an identical manner to;

a) The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation to your travel arrangements/ these terms are incorporated into this contract; and
b) Any relevant international convention, for example the Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of the provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury, delay to passengers and loss, damage and delay to your luggage. We are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these or any conventions. You can ask for copies of the transport companies' contractual terms, or the international conventions, from our offices (Switzerland Travel Centre Ltd, 30 Bedford Street, London WC2E 9ED). Under EU law (Regulation 261/2004) you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases is the responsibility of the airline and will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in clause 9. If any payments to you are due from us, any payment made to you by the airline will be deducted from this amount. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council (www.auc.org.uk).

13 Prompt assistance in resort

13.1 If the contract we have with you is not performed or is improperly performed as a result of failures attributable to a third party unconnected with the provision of the services, or as a result of failures due to unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which could not have been avoided even if all due care had been exercised, or an event which we or our suppliers, even with all due care, could not foresee or forestall, and you suffer an injury or other material loss, we will offer you such prompt assistance as is reasonable in the circumstances.

14 Excursions

14.1 Excursions or other tours that you may choose to book or pay for whilst you are on holiday are not part of your package holiday provided by us.
